WITNESSETH:

I

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Master Deed is to submit the lands herein described and the improvements to be built thereon to the condominium form of ownership and use in the manner provided by Sections 76-801 through 76-823, R.R.S. Nebraska (herein called "Condominium Act"), and the name by which this condominium is to be identified is Mose Condominium Regime.

II

PROPERTY INCLUDED

The lands owned by the Developer which are hereby submitted to the condominium regime are described as follows:

Lots 1, through 13 Replat Mose Addition, a Sub-division, as surveyed, platted and recorded in Sarpy County, Nebraska

III

DEFINITIONS

The definitions set forth in Section 76-802, R.R.S. Nebraska shall govern this Master Deed and the attached By-Laws.

IV

PRESENT COMPOSITION OF CONDOMINIUM

The condominium will consist of 13 buildings. The buildings will vary in height from one to two stories exclusive of basements.

V

COMMON ELEMENTS

The general common elements of the condominium are described as follows: the land on which the buildings stand including all of the surrounding lands embraced within the legal description specified above; the exterior surfaces of all buildings including doors and screens but excluding glass; the foundations, exterior walls and roofs; fences, walkways, bridges, trees, shrubbery and landscaping amenities; drives, parking areas and all parts of the property and improvements which are not located within the apartments as shown on the attached plans. Although all parking areas are considered general common elements, each apartment shall be entitled to the exclusive use of the parking stalls thus identified as reserved for such apartment on the attached plans. Gas patio grills and air conditioning compressors or units are not common elements but are part of each apartment and shall be maintained and replaced as needed by each owner. Each apartment owner shall be responsible for the replacement of all exterior glass. If any owner fails to replace any exterior glass of his apartment as required in this Master Deed and the By-Laws attached hereto, or if any maintenance is required because of damage caused by other than ordinary wear and tear, the Association may perform such work, invoice the owner therefor and secure and enforce a claim and lien therefor against the owner and his apartment in like manner as a delinquent assessment for common element expense.

VI.

CONDOMINIUM VALUE

The total value of the entire condominium regime is $1,539,000.00 and the basic value of each apartment together with the percentage which each apartment shall share in the expenses of and the rights in the common elements are as follows:

Unit Numbers	VALUE	% OF EXPENSES
1. A,B,C 2. A,B,C 3. A,B,C
4. A,B,C 5. A,B 6. A,B,C
7. A,B,C 8. A,B,C 9. A,B,C
10. A,B,C 11. A,B,C 12. A,B,C
13. A,B,C	$40,500.00 ea.	2.631% ea.

VII

EXPANDABLE NATURE OF CONDOMINIUM

It is understood that additional apartments, substantially identical in size and external appearance to existing apartments, together with additional common elements and recreational facilities, may from time to time be added to the regime by the developer upon the filing of an amended Master Deed applicable to the enlarged regime resulting from the additional property included therein. Each co-owner, by accepting a deed to an apartment within the condominium, thereby consents to the addition of such units and the enlargement of the condominium thereby. It is further understood that upon the filing of such documentation, the basic value of pre-existing units shall be adjusted at a cost per square foot basis comparable to that necessary to construct the additional units, resulting in a reduction of the percentage interest of pre-existing units accompanied by an increase in the total value of the entire condominium regime.

VIII

COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

The ownership of the common elements shall remain undivided, and no person or co-owner shall bring any action for the partition or division of the common elements. The Association shall from time to time establish rules and regulations for the use of the common elements and all co-owners and users shall be bound thereby. The Association shall have the sole jurisdiction over and responsibility for making alterations, improvements, repairs and maintenance of the common elements. The share of a co-owner in the common elements is appurtenant to his apartment and inseparable from apartment ownership. Any delinquent assessments against which collection proceedings have not been instituted within five years from the date due shall be waived by the Association and forever barred thereafter.

(c) Each co-owner shall be responsible:

(1) To maintain, repair and replace at his expense all portions of his apartment which are not included in the definition of common elements.

(2) To refrain from painting, decorating or changing the appearance of any portion of the exterior of the apartment buildings unless approved by the Association in writing.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings. The presence at the meeting of members entitled to cast, or of proxies entitled to cast, a majority of the votes of each class of membership shall constitute a quorum for any action except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the Master Deed, or these By-Laws, provided that no decisions affecting the Association or the co-owners shall be effective unless approved by a majority of each class of members. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting, the members entitled to vote thereat shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum as aforesaid shall be present or be represented.

Section 5. Action Taken Without a Meeting. The administrators shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could take at a meeting by obtaining the written approval of all the administrators. ARTICLE VI

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF ADMINISTRATORS

Section 1. Nomination. Nomination for election to the Board of Administrators shall be made by a Nominating Committee prior to each annual meeting. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall consist of a Chairman, who shall be a member of the Board of Administrators, and two or more additional parties who need not be members of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Administrators prior to each annual meeting of the members, to serve from the close of such annual meeting until the close of the next annual meeting and such appointment shall be announced at each annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the Board of Administrators as it shall in its discretion determine, but not less than the number of vacancies that are to be filled. Such nominations may be made from among members or non-members, provided that a majority of those elected to serve shall at all times be members of the Association.

Such rights may also be suspended after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days for infraction of published rules and regulations;

(c) Contract for the performance of such tasks and functions as shall be required to properly maintain the exterior of the apartments situated within the condominium and to properly maintain the Common elements including any improvements situated thereon;

(f) Employ a manager, an independent contractor, or such other employees as they deem necessary, and to prescribe their duties.

Section 2. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Board of Administrators to:

(g) Cause all officers or employees having fiscal responsibilities to be bonded, as it may deem appropriate;

ARTICLE IX

BUDGET

The budget shall be adopted in November of each year for the coming calendar year, and copies of the budget and proposed assessments shall be sent to each owner on or before December 31 preceding the year for which the budget is made. Budgets may be amended during a current year where necessary, but copies of the amended budget and proposed increase or decrease in assessments shall be sent to each owner as promptly as possible.

ARTICLE X

INSURANCE

Insurance policies upon the condominium property including the structures but excluding the furnishings of individual apartments shall be purchased by and in the name of the Association, for the benefit of the Association, the apartment owners, mortgagees, and lien holders, as their interests may appear. Provision shall be made (if possible) for the issuance of certificates of insurance to holders of first mortgages upon individual apartments. The insurance shall cover all buildings and improvements upon the land and all personal property included in the general and limited common elements in an amount equal to the full insurable value thereof (excluding foundation, walks, drives and excavation costs) as determined annually by the Association, but with co-insurance clauses being permitted. Such coverage shall afford protection against loss by fire and extended coverage hazards. The Association is also authorized to procure and maintain such other hazard insurance as it may, from time to time, desire. In addition, insurance shall be procured for workmen's compensation coverage and at least $100,000/$300,000 B.I. and $50,000 P.D. public liability insurance covering the common elements and such other insurance as the Association may deem advisable from time to insurance indemnity, if any, shall be credited to each apartment owner in accordance with his percentage interest specified in the Master Deed, and said sums shall be first applied towards satisfaction of any recorded first mortgage against each apartment, next towards satisfaction of junior recorded liens in order of their priority, and the remainder paid to each apartment owner. In case the insurance proceeds do not equal the cost of repairs, the excess cost shall be considered a common element expense to be assessed and collected by the Association from the co-owners; provided, however, that in such case of under-insurance, the co-owners may, by unanimous resolution adopted after the date of loss, elect not to repair the damage. In cases of over-insurance, any excess proceeds of insurance received shall be credited to the common element working funds. Each apartment owner may obtain additional insurance at his expense.

ARTICLE XI

ASSESSMENTS

Section 1. Annual Assessments. The Board of Directors shall annually impose a basic assessment against each of the Lots owned by Class A members sufficient to meet said budget. Assessments against each apartment for such common expenses shall be made annually on or before December 31 preceding the year for which assessments are made. The annual assessments shall be due in twelve equal, monthly payments on the first day of each month. The assessment to be levied against each apartment shall be equal, except as to the cost of fire and extended coverage insurance attributable solely to the apartment units, which cost shall be shared among the apartments in the same proportion as the total living area of each apartment bears to the total living area of all apartments in the regime. In case of an amended budget as provided in Article IX, the amended assessment shall be payable at the times specified in the notice of the amended assessment sent to each owner. Until construction of an apartment unit is completed as shown on the plans attached to the Master Deed, the assessment against such uncompleted apartment shall not exceed $5.00 per month. If any member shall fail or refuse to make any payment of an assessment when due, the amount thereof shall constitute a lien on the interest of the member in his apartment and the administrators may record such lien in the Office of the Register of Deeds; whereupon, said lien shall be privileged over and prior to all liens and encumbrances except assessments, liens and charges for taxes past due and unpaid on the apartment and except prior duly recorded mortgage and lien instruments. Said lien, together with interest, court costs and reasonable attorneys fees, may be foreclosed in an action in equity against the interest of the owner in the apartment against which the subject assessment was levied. The prompt payment of assessments shall also be the personal obligation of the owner of each apartment, and may be recovered in an action at law, together with interest, court costs and reasonable attorneys fees. In the event of payment in satisfaction of a lien filed of record as aforesaid, the Association shall

Section 2. Annual Adjustment of Assessments During Development. It is understood that construction of additional apartments in the condominium will take place during the developmental years and that apartments will be assessed from the date of sale to a Class A member, notwithstanding the fact that the budget and individual assessments are based on the number of apartments existing at the beginning of the year. Accordingly, assessment income in excess of the proposed budget for that year will be divided between all apartments in proportion to the total amount of assessments paid for that year and a refund made accordingly at the end of each year.

ARTICLE XII

- a. Article III Section 2 shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 2. The Association voting membership shall be all co-owners and shall be entitled to one vote for each apartment owned. - b. Article IV Section 1 shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the members shall be held in October at a date and time specifically by the Board of Administrators.

If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting, the members entitled to vote thereat shall have power to adjourn the meeting

Section 2. Term of Office. At each annual meeting, the members shall elect administrators for a term of two (2) years to replace those whose terms have expired.

- g. Article VI Section 3 shall be deleted.
- h. Article VII Section 1 shall be amended to read as follows:

- j. Article XI shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Annual Assessments. The Board of Directors shall annually impose a basic assessment against each of the Lots owned by members sufficient to meet said budget. Assessments against each apartment for such common expenses shall be made annually on or before December 31 preceding the year for which assessments are made. The annual assessments shall be due in twelve equal, monthly payments on the first day of each month. court costs and reasonable attorneys fees. In the event of payment in satisfaction of a lien filed of record as aforesaid, the Association shall forthwith file with the Register of Deeds a release of said lien. Assessments delinquent more than ten days after the due date shall incur a late payment penalty of $5.00 per month of delinquency until paid in full.

Section 2. Annual Adjustment of Assessments During Development. It is understood that construction of additional apartments in the condominium will take place during the developmental years and that apartments will be assessed from the date of sale to a member, notwithstanding the fact that the budget and individual assessments are based on the number of apartments existing at the beginning of the year. Accordingly, assessment income in excess of the proposed budget for that year will be divided between all apartments in proportion to the total amount of assessments paid for that year and a refund made accordingly at the end of each year.
